

Medieval Studies Student Association, UNM

Spring 2013 Student Colloquium

Monday, March 18th 12:30 am to 3:30 pm
Santa Ana A&B 3rd Floor of the SUB

Program

Welcome and Refreshments: 12:30 – 1:00

Opening Remarks: Emilee Howland-Davis, MSSA President

Session 1: 1:00 – 2:00

Arthurian Literature: Morgan's Magic and Malory's Masculinity

Presider: Justin Larsen, MSSA Treasurer

“Sir Gary-Stu”: Le Morte D'Arthur as Malory's Self-Insert Fanfiction

Megan Abrahamson, MSSA Vice President

Morgan le Fay: Sister, Sorceress, Savior

Emilee J. Howland-Davis, MSSA President

Session 2: 2:00 – 3:00

Religious Intersections in Medieval Europe

Presider:

Anti-Semitic Gog and Magog: Jews, Monstrosity and Salvation History in High and Late Medieval Europe

Thomas Franke

Ibn Fadlan's and Wulfstan's Accounts of Burial Ceremonies in Scandinavia

Doaa Omran

Closing Remarks: Dr. Anita Obermeier, MSSA Faculty Advisor

Refreshments Will Be Served